I’m not entirely sure I like the direction this particular scene has taken. My captive Aleksa is alone and taking steps to protect herself… but it feels a bit flat to me.

Since this is the last writing night of my week, I’ll have a couple of days to ponder her direction before I pick this back up on Sunday.

I hope you have a terrific weekend—either getting words if you’re writing, or just having a good time if you’re not.

I’ll see you on Sunday.

Both the Friday and Saturday threads will be here for you to mark your next two day, at about this time each night.
