Lying about Love

So Ki, my hero (a.k.a. Sam) has just lied to his cop partner, claiming to be in love with Aleksa, my heroine, in order to shake off some heat about his actions relating to her.

It wasn't a planned scene. It was, however, a pretty good one, though as I was writing it, I realized how badly "talking heads" it is. 556 words, and I'm going to have to do some serious scene setting in the revision.

Still, I like what I got.

How's your story coming along?
