

1501 words, and Lauren is frustrated

By Holly Lisle

The afterlife is not a very friendly or accomodating place for the living. She's making some progress, but it isn't the sort of progress she'd hoped to make.

I'm making some progress, too, though my outline is taking hits for previously unnoticed redundancy. Fleh. I'll need to rework some of the latter part – more conflict, new scenes. All in all, however, I'm satisfied with the way things are going today.
