And I'm starting to feel the return of the headache, which is not good news. It feels like a sinus thing.

However, the actual chapter is unfolding nicely. Lauren has arrived, has just received bad news on top of bad news, and is not taking it well. She will in a few minutes, though, when she realizes that she alone can change the current state of things and bring about a happy resolution, or not. With the fate of everything in her hands, she'll get over the hyperventilation. She's tough.
