

2395 words in the right direction

By Holly Lisle

I'm relieved. I like what I got today, and I'm satisfied that I found the right direction, and that I can get this thing done, edited, and out the door in time. Chutzpa? God, I hope it's just honest assessment of where I am and where I need to be. Every time I say something like that, I feel I'm tempting fate, though.
