To say it went easier today would be greatly understating the case. It just flew. Lauren got a weapon from Heyr that is going to need a name, and Heyr has explained his ties to the Siren, Wisconsin, Sentinels – but not to Pete’s satisfaction – and Lauren is having a hard time dealing with her attraction to a complete stranger that she doesn’t trust a little bit, in spite of the fact that he just saved her life, and Jake’s, and Pete’s.

I like what I got, today, and I had a hell of a lot of fun getting it. And I could have just kept going, but I ran out of time.
