

34,238, and Surprises

By Holly Lisle

Done for the day. The shipwright who's selling the ship to Rik just signed on as crew. Hadn't expected that. He's an older widower wanting one last adventure. He's going to need a name – doesn't have one yet because I hadn't thought he was anyone important.

Left good notes for myself on finishing this scene tomorrow.

Count for the day, 3226 words.
