A little one-sided conversation between Baanraak and Molly, in which he explains to her how he's going to be much kinder in purifying her than the psychopath was who purified him. There are a couple of things about this scene that I can't reveal without adding major spoilers, but this is one of those scenes where you write it, and then you realize what you've written and you wonder if maybe it's time to go talk to a shrink, because you actually thought of that stuff. Ugh!
