A girl wakes up naked…

My main character in TalysMana wakes up to discover that she has been unconscious on the floor for three days, everything she owns has been stolen, she has no memory of what happened, and thugs are standing over her debating “getting rid of the body” versus just getting out of the place and leaving her boyfriend, who “skated,” to take the blame for what he did to her.

Her one asset is a Basset hound named Fred.

She’s about to get a second asset from an incredible source.

516 words, and I’m having fun.

How about you?
