A One-Twenty Day

Did a second set of sixty pages; these, too, were tight and fun and tense. So for the day, I edited a total of 120 Hawkspar manuscript pages, roughly 24,000 words.

I'll consider going back at this again later today, but probably won't, considering the amount of laundry that's built up during all the earlier bad days. My most likely course of action is to do clothes today, then see if I can get through another 120 pages tomorrow. Or better. Better would be cool, too.

Especially in clean, folded, sorted clothes.
