

Ah. It becomes clearer

By Holly Lisle

The nastier (and longer) of the two reviews came from someone who left the site in a huff, and apparently still has a chip on her shoulder. Nice.

It's hard to feel bad about the review now, knowing who wrote it. It ceases to mean anything, though it'll probably cost me a couple of sales. Who knows – maybe someday I'll be able to return the favor.

But I kinda doubt it.
