

Already Done with the Words

By Holly Lisle

Finished with 115,696 words and a great conflict. The kid on board has been reported as kidnapped. He wasn't, but that's the story. Which is making things dicey for the folks who have given him shelter.

Now for some housework, which has been getting short shrift lately, and then some research to get a good story idea or three on the work-for-hire project.
