

An even 500 words today, and a conundrum for my hero

I'm a solid third of the way through Book 5, and threw a conundrum at my main character.

I also solved a problem way, way too easily, though, so when I come back to this tomorrow, I have to have the solution sprout horns and fangs and a bad attitude..

Or at least dump a little rain on her parade.

However... in the middle of relaunching my writing website and getting ready to wrap up the half-price writing-class sale on Friday, and with a pretty nasty headache going on, I STILL got words today.

Right at the moment, that feels like a big damn win.
