

And Yet Adding Something New Is Endlessly Tempting

By Holly Lisle

I can't update regularly. I can, however, post the occasional word-count/note on how it's going. I've decided to do that, but to still leave comments off for the time being because I can't babysit the weblog, and as some of you know, we've had the occasional troublemaker. I'd rather pass on that.

Look for me ... when you see me.

As for today's update, I'm almost finished with the galleys of Gods Old and Dark and will have those in on time, and am at page 600 on Talyn. Official halfway mark. Got myself out of the murk, and the book is much brighter and more fun for it.
