Next Monday, all hell is going to have to break loose in Tori's world, but today was... nice. Relaxing. She and someone who is going to be important in her life from now on got the chance to meet each other after a long and harrowing ordeal in finding each other.

I was grateful that the writing went so smoothly – and doubly grateful that I woke up early this morning and knew most of what I wanted to accomplish when I started.

I managed to surprise myself a couple times. Discovered a bit of fun I hadn't anticipated.

And I left myself in a very nice position to pick up next week.
