

Why I shut down my Patreon fundraiser

By Holly Lisle

I'd intended to send a Questions & Answers email to my How to Write a Novel launch list, but that's going to have to wait. Instead, I did THIS.

Closed my "Move out of Florida while writing fiction" fundraiser.

Here's why – it's this clause in the Patreon Legal Agreement

<https://www.patreon.com/legal>

By posting content to Patreon you grant us a royalty-free, perpetual, irrevocable, non-exclusive, sublicensable, worldwide license to use, reproduce, distribute, perform, publicly display or prepare derivative works of your content.

Understand that I read that clause and all the rest of them before signing up.

BUT... I'm not a lawyer, and I understood that clause to mean that Patreon was claiming the right to use my Patreon-created content (in other words, my POSTS) to promote the site.

I DID NOT think that they were claiming the right to use and abuse the content I was giving my patrons. In this case, three monthly chapters of the raw first draft of one of my current novels in progress, Dead Man's Party.

A friend emailed me with a link to this post, however:

<https://www.thepassivevoice.com/the-beginning-of-the-end-for-patreon/>

Turns out, I was wrong. Patreon is claiming rights to my novel.

So I'm out. I sent the first copy of this email to my patrons using a private Patreon post, and then I shut down my Patreon fundraiser, and am now trying to figure out how to actually close my account.

I'm not letting this kill my dream of moving us out of Florida...

...(hopefully before the next hurricane, if not the start of the hurricane season).

Both of the Cadence Drake novels – Hunting the Corrigan's Blood and Warpaint, are off sale while I come up with new titles and new cover art for them, and new key words, descriptions, and other marketing that allows me to correctly put them in front of the audience that likes a few vampires and a bit of horror with its spaceships.

The Longview Chronicles (complete Series) is in the same universe – still dark, but without the vampires:

I have much more fiction that's commercially published, or which is out of print and has reverted to me, but which I have not yet republished.

I'm not linking to ANY of that fiction, because your purchase of used books or books where publishers haven't paid royalties in years will not help me.

So there we are.

I want to thank all my patrons again, and I am so sorry that I had to do this, but there is no way I can permit this:

Excerpted from Patreon Legal Terms

You keep full ownership of all content that you post on Patreon, but to operate we need licenses from you.

By posting content to Patreon you grant us a royalty-free, perpetual, irrevocable, non-exclusive, sublicensable, worldwide license to use, reproduce, distribute, perform, publicly display or prepare derivative works of your content.

No. Just NO.

Holly

P.S. I have had one of my Patreon patrons already ask me how she could continue to support me on a monthly basis.

Here's the answer I gave her:

"I'll look into what's available. Right now, I'm crushed to discover the rights Patreon actually claimed, and worried about getting involved with any other site. So I'm in limbo. You'll find my blog at HollyLisle.com. I'll be keeping my folks there up to date on how I deal with this. It sucks.

Hugs, and thank you for asking."

Why is EVERYBODY on my blog, my mailing list, and in my forums getting this?

Because if you know me, you're probably either a reader or a writer. If you're a writer, you may be considering using Patreon, and you need to know. If you're a reader considering funding someone on Patreon, THEY need to know.

And this is the ugliest, broadest rights-grab I have personally ever seen. Or sadly, been caught up in.

The New Paranormal Suspense Covers

By Holly Lisle

I finished the following covers for my upcoming novels today:

Midnight Rain

Midnight Rain: "He'll NEVER forget you..."

I See You

I See You: "Someone's watching..."

Last Girl Dancing

Last Girl Dancing:
“Don’t talk to strangers...”

Night Echoes

Night Echoes: “Your past is waiting...”

Because of a bit of a financial bump, I’m pushing hard to get all the backlist up in the next couple of months. To my amazement (because I thought exactly the opposite), I think the suspense novels are going to take the longest. I'm having to go through them and edit to bring the late-draft manuscript versions I have up to the published versions.

The scans don't have to be rewritten. They just have to be edited, and my guys (and in two cases, my co-authors) are working on that.

So my release schedule is going to change completely, and will probably start with either the Arhel trilogy or the Devil's Point trilogy.

But there will be books soon. ☐

A Book Giveaway (sort of)

By Holly Lisle

Lots of my novels for free if you'll pay the postage.

SUNDAY ADDITION:

I underestimated the extent of my problem. And I do have a few copies of some of the later Baen books. And I found the missing Vengeance of Dragons copies. Lots of them.

Any more volunteers?

Also, much to my amazement, I have no remaining copies of the historical thing. Many apologies. Holly

P.S. The scary thing is, I suspect there are still more books hiding in corners. I'm afraid.

SATURDAY: The Original Post

I have a bunch of copies of my own work I need to get rid of.

- I'd have one massive contest and winners galore, but I can't afford the shipping for that many books.

- I can't sell them—that's in the contracts.
- I don't want to dump them at libraries; I'd rather give them to individual folks.
- I considered doing a Books of the Wild thing, where I'd send boxes of books to people who agreed to send all but one of the books out into the world to meet new people, who could then log into a Wild Books Tracking Station to note where they got their book, and where they passed it on when they were done with it, with rules taped into the inside front covers to let the readers know how to find and log into the tracking station, (I thought this would be particularly cool) but as previously noted, I don't have the money for all that shipping, and I can't ask folks to pay shipping and then only keep one book.

So...

I have at least a few of most of my more recent books (most of my post-Baen work) and a lot of a few of them. And I have some flat rate shipping boxes that ship to anywhere in the US for $8.95. In order to cover PayPal fees and packing up the box, add an extra dollar—total US shipping will be $9.95. Each box will comfortably fit 6 paperbacks, and as long as they last, one hardcover or galley. When I run out of hardcovers and galleys, I'll throw in three extra paperbacks. (These are likely to be duplicates. If I have to send duplicates and you didn't indicate that you wanted them, I'll let you know before you pay for the shipping.)

If you're willing to pay the postage, I'll ship you a box of mixed books. If you don't mind duplicates (to give to friends, for example), please note this in your entry. I have quite a few paperback Talyns, for example.

I'll autograph one book in each box—I hurt my wrists, the right one especially, from too much knitting, which I've been using to deal with stress, and typing is painful and hand-writing pure agony. (Forget knitting. At the moment, I can barely hold yarn.) So give me your wish-list of three books you'd like to own in autographed form in order of your preference, and if I have it, I'll sign and include one of those three books in the box. If I don't, I'll pick what I think is the best book in the box and autograph that one. These books won't be personalized, just dated and signed. I apologize for this, because I usually personalize unless requested not to, but ... pain. We're not going to mention how exciting it is to type this.

I also have a couple of surprises (still my books, but special or odd in some way or another). No comment on those, but they'll ship in the first boxes to go out.

All books are new, unread, but some do have dings on corners or other flaws—the boxes seem to pass through punishment testing en route to me from time to time.

If you enjoy ancient historical fiction, note this and I'll throw in an unrelated book of which I happen to have a whole bunch of copies. If you really like it, I'll send a few extra (I have lots and lots of copies). Just ask.

Here are the rules:

- 1. You have to have some way of using PayPal, whether through your own PayPal account, a debit card, credit card, or checking account, to do this.
- 2. Don't send any money until I've packed your box and contacted you (and we've agreed on the shipping price if you're outside the US).
- 3. Special requests are first come, first served.

4. All book boxes are ALSO first come, first served.
5. If you have any books you already have and don't want to accidentally get another of (even to pass on), please list these.
6. The times on replies will serve as the final arbiter of who asked first. I will religiously check the spam and rescue requests while this offer is ongoing. If you have fallen afoul of the spam-catcher, let me know right away at holly AT hollylisle DOT com.
7. This offer is only good until I run out of books.

The average value of a box of 6 paperback books with one hardcover will be about $67. I can't guess the value of the galleys, but to collectors, I'm sure they're fairly valuable. Average value of a box of nine paperbacks without a hardcover or galley will be about $63. If you're outside the US, keep this number in mind when figuring shipping. You don't want to pay more than the value of the books, and you'd probably want to stop at about half the value. For orders outside the US, we'll figure on a case-by-case basis. You're never obligated to buy—if shipping is too much for your budget, I can pack up just one or two books for you in a sturdy envelope or little box, or you can pass your box on to the next person on the list.

Make sure your e-mail address in your account on this weblog is correct, because that's how I'll contact each of you.

That's it. If you're interested, let me know here. The giveaway starts now.

I SEE YOU: Romantic Times Top Pick

By Holly Lisle

☒ Just got the news from Michelle Rowen that I See You got 4 1/2 stars and a Top Pick from Romantic Times.

Here's a quote from the review: "Talk about putting readers on the edge of their seats! Lisle's new thriller is a gut-wrenching combination of terror and romance, with a touch of the paranormal. The well-defined characters breathe life into this creepy, intense tale, making it truly unforgettable."

Which reminds me—I need to get the first couple of chapters up. The book will be on shelves the first of July, and I'd sort of forgotten that.

Michelle's new book, Angel With Attitude, will also be coming out in July, and got 4 stars. Her first, Bitten and Smitten, was funny and wonderful, and I'm really looking forward to seeing what she's done next.

And A Sale

By Holly Lisle

Time to drag out the endless saga of the Onyx Proposal, but this time for happy news. Claire just bought Shadow Music, one of the books I worked up in the series of about a dozen that I did for the Onyx Proposal. Shadow Music sold to a different Penguin line (Eclipse), with a release date in early 2008, and I'll be doing it under my own name. If it goes well, we'll follow up with others. It isn't the SM Proposal, exactly, though, so the full SM Proposal, minus Shadow Music, will go back in the pile to be reworked and at some later date reused for something else. I don't throw away worlds.

So. About the Writing.

By Holly Lisle

So. Penguin. The EMT Proposal is toast. We're discussing me going in an entirely different direction. I'm not posting details until we've sealed the deal, because there are some things about it that I might not be completely free to discuss.

It isn't what I'd planned on, but it does offer some interesting possibilities.

Onward, Brightly

By Holly Lisle

Heard from Robin yesterday that she liked the proposal, and had sent it straight on to Claire. This never happens, so I'm hoping the fact that it did this time is a sign (no, make that SIGN) of good things to come.

I'm still doing the HTCBB manuscript slog. I'm reacquainting myself with the world at the same time, and envying the younger self who wrote that book. The tech and the set-up keep taking me by surprise; I had a lot more in there than I thought I did.

It's clear to me that I'm going to miss the hell out of my worldbuilding notes for that book.

And that when I get back into Cady II, I'm going to have to take really, really good notes. 'Cause, damn, it's not fun having to scramble through older books for details on the way things work.

And Another One Bites the Dust

By Holly Lisle

The proposal for a possible next suspense novel went out to my agent about ten seconds ago. Took longer than I thought possible to finish the revision, but on the up side, I like it a lot, and I'd love to write the book. It deals with a different level of relationships than the previous novels, maintains the light paranormal element, and has a nice mystery and a bit of bloodshed involved.

Now, on to the e-book version of Hunting the Corrigan's Blood, so I don't make myself crazy waiting to hear something.
