

Cheap and Free Video Resources Now Up

By Holly Lisle

If you're interested in participating in the How To Revise Your Novel Scholarship Contest, I've now put up my recommendations for free and inexpensive ways to create videos.

These include:

- Mac/Windows Software
- Mac ONLY software
- Windows ONLY software (none of that yet—don't use Windows, and don't know what to recommend)
- Create-your-video ONLINE software
- Stock Image Resources (PENDING)
- Stock Sound Resources (PENDING)

And I've included the software I use and love.
