I'm pleased to announce that Holly Lisle's Create A Plot Clinic is now available in ringbound workbook form. I have the first copy in my hands now, and it came out beautifully.

If you like this book, or any of the other clinics in print form, and have found one of the books useful in your work, please consider leaving a review on Lulu. I don't know for sure that reviews in Lulu's publishing model help sales, but I'm guessing they would, and I'd be grateful for the help.
