

Ending strong on Friday: 1320 new words – 36,807 total – and a scene I've been waiting to write since I started this

Great writing day, my MC and the character who has been hidden inside the story until now finally get to meet...

And it all worked.

I miss being able to do snippets, because I would have had a great one for today – but I have to keep the pseudonym separate from me until the books have a chance to find an audience in the Urban Fantasy / Fantasy readership.

Today just went really, really well.
