There are reasons not to check out reviews on your own books on Amazon. LAST GIRL DANCING – one good one, one dreadful one. Ugh. Dismal.

Guessing the dismal one was from someone who wanted a fantasy novel, or a softer, sweeter romantic suspense. Still, I wonder if Koontz took shit about his villain in WHISPERS before cops discovered a woman who had raised her kids the way the villain was created in that book.

I look at villains this way – just because the cops don't have one like that on the books doesn't mean there isn't one out there.
