

Going to Lose About a Hundred Pages

By Holly Lisle

I've assessed the manuscript, and this isn't good. I'm going to have to yank about a hundred pages, and what this is going to do to my page count and word count I don't even want to think about. If I fall off the face of the planet entirely for a while, please forgive me. I'm neck-deep in alligators already, and someone just rang the dinner bell.
