

Got A Little Carried Away on I SEE YOU

By Holly Lisle

Finished with 41,521 words, more than the two thousand I needed, but I didn't feel like stopping. And I still got my words in right at two hours. ISY is moving nicely – Dia's going diving following a rough night; her day is going to be even worse. But that's tomorrow.

Now on to HAWKSPAR, where I'm getting closer and closer to those green index cards. Only two tiny little squares now lie between me green-ness.

Whoever said, "It's not easy being green?" LIED.
