

Got over 200 pages revised yesterday

By Holly Lisle

And something nice. The farther I go through this manuscript, the more I realize that I haven't liked a book this much when I was done with it since Sympathy for the Devil.

Maybe I should write everything under this hectic, insane pressure.

Or maybe not.

So anyway, I have less than 200 pages to revise, and the book will hit my editor's desk on time, and all is right with the world.
