

HAWKSPAR Flew

By Holly Lisle

Finished at 128,147 words, and wrote a scene where I made myself cry. Don't do it often, usually bodes well when I do.

I'm getting good, solid work now. I have no outline anymore – I'm just winging it and heading toward the ending, which I still know, and hoping to hell gut instinct will get me there in good shape.

Today, my gut felt right on the money.
