I've pulled Create A Character Clinic out of the store until I can get it working correctly. Though I've tried more than a dozen times now to upload the correct ebook into the system, it was still sending out Mugging the Muse, which meant I was hand-fulfilling every copy of CCC that sold.

If you bought CCC, you almost certainly got a copy of Mugging the Muse; you need to e-mail me with at the support email included in your receipt. Include your order number, and I will send you the correct e-book.

My apologies for the confusion. CCC will go back on sale as soon as Margaret and I can figure out why this is happening.

Meanwhile, Sheila's Way of the Cheetah is downloading correctly.
