Redid my Geeklog installation to match the rest of the site. I like it much better without all the metal boxes.

This day off is pretty much like the day off of any other writer just off a hard deadline with another two looming – I'm catching up on housework. Feh! But it's a gorgeous day, the windows are open, a cool breeze is blowing through, and the kid is at the table doing a homeschooling project. How much better could housework get?
