The chaos has expanded.

My writing time has contracted.

In spite of which, I got 1136 NEW words on the Dead Man's Party revision, today, which came out to half a scene.

At the moment, it's going to have to do, and I'm glad I at least got some words, even if I didn't get the 2000 I wanted.

Chaos, after all, will not be circumvented.
