

My plans for the weekend

By Holly Lisle

I'm worn out. In the last couple of weeks I've written Plot Clinic, had a new grandbaby, watched the NY Rangers climb out of mediocrity to clinch a spot in the playoffs and then sweep Atlanta in the first round, and dealt with some less-happy stresses.

So this weekend I'm going to sleep. I haven't done that with any regularity in weeks.

Just a reminder for those of you wanting the beta of Plot Clinic—the link and the book will go away at 12 Noon EDT Saturday 21st. I'll have the finished book up on April 1st at the latest.

I hope you folks have a wonderful weekend. See you Monday.
