And, as promised last night, Kettan got to see what Fred was growling at in the shadows in the corner.

AND the police called (though their news isn’t nearly as good as it sounds.)

Got 682 words tonight, got the chapter formatted and added to the mailing list, and it should, in most cases, go out on Thursday.

And I found out the hero’s nickname, and had to laugh when I did. I hadn’t planned it. Kettan, who was embarrassed about it, told me.

How’s your story coming?
