

Now available to everyone: The Indie Pub Live Chat plus links

By Holly Lisle

I think this particular chat—covering some of the issues of indie publishing, is one of the best live events I've done in a while. You can watch it and get the links, plus all the other chats in this series, here:

No login necessary. Just go ahead over.

HOWEVER: I experienced technical difficulties.

What this means is that I'm going to look for someone who can go in there for me and help me out by popping up links, polls, other screens, and other things that take my focus away from answering questions. This is just a volunteer thing, but if you're interested (AFTER watching the chat—please make sure you know what you're getting into going in) just let me know here.
