I used to have a lot of fun with the folks on my list back when I only sent emails to one group of people.

Well, I'm back to just mailing to one group of people. So I'm saying it's time to have some fun again.

This is what my list guys and I built together back when – still cool and useful years later.

And it reminds me of the days when I loved getting email, back when I heard from people I liked about things that interested me.

I want that back – not just for myself, but also for you. Email that's only the good stuff.

Let's make that happen.
