

Refreshed and excited, I'm getting started early

I wrote a little bit yesterday evening, just because I had one little snippet of an idea that I didn't want to get away. But I took most of the day off, playing Sims, hanging out with the kids, and watching hockey. (Islanders looked pretty amazing last night.)

Today, I want to explore the hero's hunt for details on the dying woman who came into the emergency department. And I'd like to run a bit with Phoebe's attempts to track down the connection between her threatening phone calls and the ghost.
