

“Requested” takes precedence over “on-spec”

By Holly Lisle

In the writing universe, at least, those projects which an editor is waiting to see take precedence over those which are purely speculative. I’ll still be doubling up – working on both the requested thing and Midnight Rain. However, between yesterday afternoon and this morning I’ve had a serious re-think. First thing in the morning and all the freshest thoughts are going into project development and outlining today.

Alan can realize ‘all is not right’ later today.
