

Revisions first, then pages

By Holly Lisle

I got great crits on the proposal from Matt last night, so the first order of business today is to rewrite the portions that didn't stand up to scrutiny (not many this time, and nothing severe – nothing like last time.)

Following that, 2500 words. I'm getting itchy to get back to the book.

(originally written at around 1:30 pm, but Blogger wasn't posting.)
