

Sick day

By Holly Lisle

The weekend didn't turn out the way I'd hoped. Oh, I got plenty of sleep, but I did it with a fever, headache, coughing, sneezing, runny eyes and nose, muscle aches... you name it. Still sick today. The kidlet had it last week, I ran down my resistance by working too hard.

Anyway, I'm taking a sick day. My son asked me if I had to call my agent to see if it was okay. I thought that was pretty funny.
