I'm taking a mental health day – got a bad rejection on a proposal yesterday. (A good rejection is one you see coming. A bad rejection is one where they're telling you they'll get you an offer in the next two or three days, and then they blind-side you with, "Uh, no, actually, we've decided to pass on this.")

I'm going to rearrange furniture in the community and move moderators around for a while. I'd be useless for writing right at the moment. I should be better by tomorrow.
