Temporarily, anyway, with 1343 words. So I read Sheila Viehl's blog, which is funny and interesting and has a couple of eye-popping rants – don't mention Christmas humbug to her, and keep your head down if your a member of the RWA who thinks only the elite should be allowed to join. She has good taste in Christmas gifts, too – George Carlin is an all-time winner.

But now I must get brain, fingers, and story back in concert and my ass in gear, and do all of this simultaneously, because the words must be done. Especially if I want to take tomorrow and Christmas off. And I do.
