Yesterday was completely devoured by handwritten pages. Odds are good that today will be as well.

The scene I'm writing is essential to rounding out the story. Can't skimp, can't hurry. I'm frustrated by the time it's taking. But I'll get it done, and get the book done.

We are, at this point, looking at Nov. 27th as the earliest possible publication date, and I am looking at never, never, never, never offering a hard publication date again. From now on, it's gonna be "End of November. Late 2013. Do you want fries with that?"

Like that.

Live and learn.

Hope your writing goes well today. Happy words.
