

Sympathy for the Devil Cover Art

By Holly Lisle

Be careful what you pray for...

It took a bunch of tries to get this right. But I like the results. I think it captures the spirit of the book.

This one is almost ready to go. Hoping to have it live in a week or so.

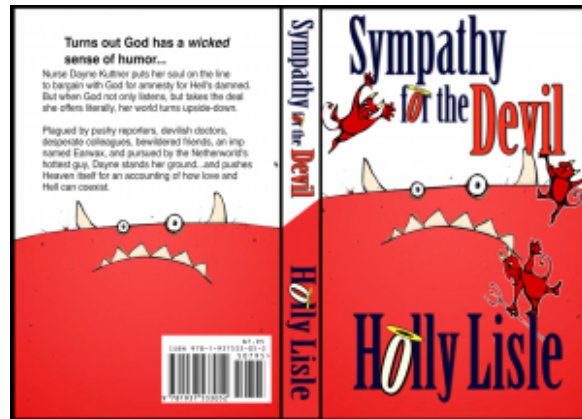

ADDENDUM: Just finished uploading the print version to CreateSpace. Here's the wrap-around cover for that, as well as the cover copy:

Turns out God has a wicked sense of humor...

Nurse Dayne Kuttner puts her soul on the line to bargain with God for amnesty for Hell's damned. But when God not only listens, but takes the deal she offers literally, her world turns upside-down.

Plagued by pushy reporters, devilish doctors, desperate colleagues, bewildered friends, an imp named Earwax, and pursued by the Netherworld's hottest guy, Dayne stands her ground...and pushes Heaven itself for an accounting of how love and Hell can coexist.

Turns out God has a wicked sense of humor...
