

Talking to the cat

By Holly Lisle

Three-thousand plus words today, and I had the delightful fun of talking with the cat, who told me (or rather, Genna, though I got to listen) exactly what it was about the boy that disturbed him.

He has a point. Now I'll have to find out whether he also happens to be right. He's a pretty bright cat, but he doesn't know everything.

Great writing day.
