The finished draft (book plus worksheets) comes to 66,491 words.

I'm printing out the draft now to give to my editor, and tomorrow will be contacting the folks on my beta tester list to see who will be able to do the necessary worldbuilding orgy on my schedule.

Meanwhile, I'll be putting together the various videos, downloadables, and other things that will be included in the book purchase, or in the World Clinic Expansion upgrade.

And doing cover art.

And setting up the classroom, forum, and downloads.

But right this second, I'm dancing in my chair. Done, done, done.

I DO NOT YET HAVE A DATE, EVEN AN ESTIMATED ONE, for when the book will go live. It will be soonish.

However, now is the time to make sure your free HTTS membership is working.

I'm offering a Members ONLY One-Day Only 20% off discount on the course:
