The first piece of Official TalysMana Jewelry is now available – The Taylsmana Viewer. This is the original piece that Kettan receives in the mysterious package at the very beginning of the novel. This is what sets Kettan's story in motion.

I had 30 that I could get shipped and in the mail for Christmas. The first one has sold, leaving 29 left. I will keep a running tally on the Etsy page for those interested in purchase. Since this is an open – or in other words 'unlimited' – piece it will be available again after the holidays.

Once I am out of the 30 ready-to-ship I will create a place to pre-order pieces. When purchasing a pre-order please remember it will take about 5 days to create and ship your TalysMana Viewer.
