

The Music Poll

By Holly Lisle

Ack. How does someone who actually likes country music forget to include it on favorite genres poll?

May I plead temporary insanity? No? Well, I fixed it anyway. Country is now on the poll, and the two people who voted other and commented "country" got their votes moved from "other" to "country". If you already voted "other" and want your vote to count for "country," post a comment to that effect and I'll switch it over for you.

No, in the grand scheme of things, it's trivial. But missing something that big bugged me.

(Oh – the selection that came out? New Age.)
