

The Ohio Series: 1408 words and a cliffhanger for me

By Holly Lisle

Had a LOT of things going today, all of which were important, some of which were urgent, and all of which collided with my words.

But I did get 1408, and I'm now on Chapter 4.

And Tori got her bolt cutters, took the lock off the basement freezer, opened it, closed it again, and is now sitting on top of the freezer wishing she'd bought a replacement lock while she was at Wal-Mart.

What's in the freezer?

Dunno. But I'm going to find out tomorrow. Should make for an interesting writing day.
