Heard from Claire through Robin today that the proposal still won't work. It lacks a compelling one-line hook. (Which means a complete rewrite, incidentally – don't think I just have to come up with one good line.)

So I'll set my back brain to digging around for things to toss at this, and when I finish the revision for LGD, my subconscious should have served up something workable and exciting for me.

The money now would have been nice, of course. But ... oh, well. You make do.
