

The state of the revision of THE SELLING OF SUZEE DELIGHT

By Holly Lisle

Tales from The
Longview, Episode
2: The Selling of
Suzee Delight

I did my first editor's revision. Added a bunch of words to the story.

In the first revision, I nailed the ending, but screwed up one big character issue while fixing a problem from the first revision.

Am doing the second editor's revision today.

After that, assuming Matt's third read of the story gets me a green light, the story will go to my copyeditor, and then I'll put it out in print.

When it goes live, I'll be about ready to start Module 2 of the HOW TO WRITE A SERIES EXPANSION.

As of this minute, the story stands at 27,102 words. (Out of 20,000 planned. Yeah. I'm over, and at this point pushing from 25% over to 33% over.)
