Genna went home, after a fashion, and in a period of days, the world she had known all her life had been obliterated.

I didn't know. I was as stunned as she was. Now she's searching for the people who were there the last time she saw the place. Family, friends ...

This completely threw me. I'd known things had gotten bad, but I didn't know they'd gotten so bad, so close.

Just under 3000 words, and another chapter down.
