Today I discovered something I did not know – that the layered conspiracy that pulled Cady and her allies into danger did so with way more initial planning than I'd realized.

That the horrifying crimes she uncovered and solved might have just been a convenient way for someone to get her in front of a much bigger and much older secret – something that has been legally murdering people for a couple hundred years.

There are two big questions I don't have answers for yet.

The first is: Why has it been brought to light now?

And the second is: EXACTLY why was it hidden in the first place?

I get a little shivery just thinking about the depth of deceit involved in this, and about what sort of terrifying secret might be tucked away at the back of it.

I'll get the answer to the first question by the end of this novel.

The second question?

That's bigger. A lot bigger. And the thing I think every time I look at it is... "When they find the answers, my folks had better be ready for the consequences."
