I had a dickens of a time figuring out a way to get the survey results for THE WRITING CRAFT up in any usable, readable format.

So you can download the PDF and take a look, or open it directly and read it here.

871 people voted. I'm still analyzing all the comments, but for the courses I was already planning, a lot did not make the cut, and some are debatable.

You can take a look at the votes per module (based on the question) and see if there's anything that's in there that you personally really wanted.

Your comments are welcome.
