Sheesh! I almost feel like dancing. Had a breakthrough this morning on the scene I'm rewriting (ended up deleting the original scene last night and starting over from scratch) and all of a sudden the thing fell together for me and flew. I haven't had a lot of flying lately – it felt wonderful, and reminded me why I love writing so much. I'll write some more this evening, but we have an old friend coming over, so I'll be taking the afternoon off. ::wandering off to clean the house, feeling triumphant::
